Idaho Supreme Court Records and Briefs Collection

■ This collection is in the process of moving from one digital platform to another, and is currently only available by request. Requests must include one or more of the following: case name, party names, docket number, Idaho Reports citation or Pacific Reporter citation. Send requests to lawlib@uidaho.edu or call (208) 885-6521 and ask to speak to Emma Altman or Carolyn Todd. ■

The ISCRB collection contains public record legal briefs and records submitted to the Idaho Supreme Court and Idaho Appellate Court and supplied to the University of Idaho Law Library by the courts for the purposes of scholarship and research.

The digital repository provides a searchable interface for discovery and utilization of Idaho Supreme & Court of Appeals documents. The Law Library's collection of digitized briefs begins in 2010 and continues to grow in size and scope. Courts documents from 1911 through 2009 are available in print in Moscow. Search for these documents using the case name, party names, docket number, Idaho Reports citation or Pacific Reporter citation.
